DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: W/Rx in Figs. 1 and 6; t(ns) in Fig. 5; TIMEUP in Figs. 7-8; Preset value in Fig. 8; WL[0] in Figs. 9-10 Prior Art. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

It is not understood what the elements W/Rx in Figs. 1 and 6; t(ns) in Fig. 5; TIMEUP in Figs. 7-8; Preset value in Fig. 8; WL[0] in Figs. 9-10 Prior Art really are since they are not described in the specification.

It is not understood what the input of the driver 13e in Fig. 3B of the present invention is and how it is interconnected with the other elements in the circuits of the present invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-11 are, insofar as understood, rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chun, 6,643,218.

Chun, 6,643,218, discloses in Fig. 1 Prior Art a DRAM device comprising:
memory cell array 50;
command buffer 20 receiving clock signal CLK and command active signals /CS, /RAS, /CAS and /WE to activate one of the rows and to generate internal precharge signal PREI; precharge circuit 60.

Since claims 1-1 are rejected under 112, first paragraph, as set forth above, therefore, insofar as understood, all the remaining features as recited in claims 1-11 would have been obvious read on Fig. 1 Prior Art of Chun, 6,643,218.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Matsubara, 5,959,900, Haraguchi et al., 6,240,045, Koo et al., 6,744,687, Emmot et al., 6,683,816.
